

Do you have...

Pioneers in Your Attic

Preserving the Legacy of the Western Overland Migration

Share your family's history with the world

- Make an appointment with a participating public library
- Bring your original materials to be scanned by library staff
- Receive digital copies of all items scanned
- View your items on the Utah State University Digital Library and the Mountain West Digital Library
- Share links with family and friends!

Pioneers in Your Attic is a pioneer legacy digital project sponsored by Utah Academic Library Consortium and Mountain West Digital Library in partnership with local libraries & museums.

Collecting materials on all aspects of overland migration including: trail & camp life, transportation, encounters with native peoples, animals & plants, diseases, medicine, gold rush, religion, politics & government, perspectives from non-traditional viewpoints (women, children, minorities)

Come to an opening event to find out more:

Logan Public Library:

Or one of these other locations

August 22, 7-8:30 pm

Brigham City Public Library: Sept. 18, 7-8:30 pm

Hyrum Public Library:

Sept. 23, 7-8:30 pm

Want more information now?

Email USUDigital@gmail.com or visit

Pioneers in Your Attic website at <http://mwdl.org/portals/pioneers.php>

Mountain West Digital Library
UTAH ACADEMIC LIBRARY CONSORTIUM

UtahStateUniversity
UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES