CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

April 18, 2016 marked the 100th birthday of the Logan Library. The celebrations started in April of 2015 with a pre-centennial party on the 18th of each month featuring the news and happenings of each decade. A centennial logo and flag were created to commemorate the year. A centennial song, 100 Years of Words, was composed by library staff member Robert Linton, with lyrics by Lyndi Perry.

On Monday, April 18, 2016, the library held a special Centennial Celebration (122 attendees). The activities included a library carnival (600), the presentation of a time capsule, a special video message from Governor Herbert, a musical performance of the centennial song by Cache Valley Children's Choir, light refreshments and short speeches by local leaders.

The entire year and the final event were a demonstration of what the Logan Library has achieved in the last 100 years and an example of what we hope to achieve in the next 100 years!

PROGRAMS

The library provided many fun and informative programs in 2016. The Community Fair and Maker Faire (700 attendees), Comic Con (1003), and the Hispanic Heritage Festival (600) were all very successful. The Children's Halloween Carnival (1350) and the Teen's Humans vs Zombies (150) events in October were overwhelmingly attended and enjoyable for all. The library remains committed to providing quality program for all ages.
