

Murphy's law

by Rhys Bowen
MYSTERY Bowen

Molly Murphy flees Ireland to avoid a murder charge only to become involved in a murder on Ellis Island.

Mr. Churchill's secretary

by Susan Elia MacNeal
MYSTERY MacNeal

Trained in math and code-breaking, Maggie Hope uses her access as secretary to the prime minister to uncover an assassination plot.

The last Kashmiri rose

by Barbara Cleverly
MYSTERY Cleverly

Scotland Yard detective Joe Sandilands trails a serial killer in 1920s Calcutta.

A curious beginning

by Deanna Raybourn
MYSTERY Raybourn

Adventuress Victoria Speedwell teams up with an ill-tempered naturalist to solve a mysterious baron's murder.

The anatomist's wife

by Anna Lee Huber
MYSTERY Huber

Lady Darby's skill learned by illustrating her dead husband's dissection work, pulls her into a murder case.

Girl waits with gun

by Amy Stewart
MYSTERY Stewart

When the Kopp sisters' buggy is struck and overturned by silk baron Henry Kaufman's car, pistol-packing Constance Kopp pursues justice.

Death in focus

by Anne Perry
MYSTERY Perry

A young photographer carries her lover's final urgent message into the heart of pre-WWII Berlin as Hitler ascends power.

A duty to the dead

by Charles Todd
MYSTERY Todd

WWI nurse Bess Crawford attends a dying soldier who entrusts her with his last request.

If you like Jacqueline Winspear

Historical mysteries with similarities to the Maisie Dobbs series

Logan Library

255 North Main

Logan, Utah 84321 | 435 716-9123

library.loganutah.org

Murder on Astor Place

by Victoria Thompson
MYSTERY Thompson
Feisty midwife Sarah Brandt solves a murder in turn-of-the-century New York City.

Beekeeper's apprentice

by Laurie R. King
MYSTERY King
15-year-old Mary Russell quite literally trips over Sherlock Holmes while walking and reading on Sussex Downs and becomes his apprentice and partner.

The other side of midnight

By Simone St. James
MYSTERY St. James
In 1920s London medium Ellie Winters works to solve the murder of her friend, a well-known psychic.

Dying in the wool

by Frances Brody
MYSTERY Brody
When the untimely disappearance of Master of the Mill Joshua Braithwaite disrupts the peaceful town of Bridgestead, Kate Shackleton uncovers the missing man's fate.

A beautiful, blue death

by Charles Finch
MYSTERY Finch
Armchair explorer Charles Finch responds to his friend Lady Jane when she asks for help in investigating the apparent suicide of her maid.

Nine lessons

by Nicola Upson
MYSTERY Upson
DCI Penrose teams up with writer Josephine Tey in Cambridge, England to solve a series of murders inspired by ghost stories.

Murder at the Brightwell

by Ashley Weaver
MYSTERY Weaver
Amory Ames tries to help her former fiancé, only to become entangled in murder.

Murder in an English village

by Jessica Ellicott
MYSTERY Ellicott
Beryl and Edwina solve a murder in the humdrum village of Walmsley Parva.

Unsuitable job for a woman

by P. D. James MYSTERY James
Left alone by her partner's suicide, Cordelia Gray struggles to manage the private investigating agency they once shared.

The secrets of Wishtide

by Kate Saunders
MYSTERY Saunders
Laetitia Rodd, an archdeacon's widow, moonlights as a private investigator in 1850's London.

A death of no importance

by Mariah Fredericks
MYSTERY FREDERICKS
Ladies' maid Jane Prescott unravels the truth of the murder of a notorious New York City society playboy.

Penny for your secrets

by Anna Lee Huber
MYSTERY Huber
England 1919. When a friend's husband is shot with her own revolver, it's up to former secret service agent Verity Kent to prove her innocence.