City of Logan Municipal Council Records

Types of Records

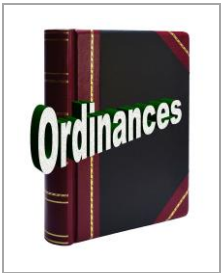

Council Resolutions

In legal terms, a resolution is a written motion adopted by a deliberative body.

City Council resolutions are not considered law but may be considered a matter of policy.

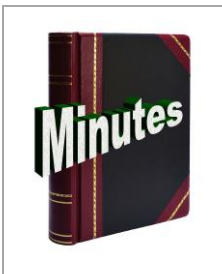

Council Ordinances [City Code]

An ordinance is a piece of legislation, enacted by a municipal authority.

The City Council is the legislative arm of the city and has the authority to enact laws (ordinances) for the city. When codified, the ordinances become known as the city code.

Council Minutes

Minutes are a permanent, formal record of what transpires at a meeting.

The council minutes give a detailed record of what occurred in each meeting and what issues were confronting the city at a given time.
